All theſe ſhips marked with a ſtar, are entirely new and never out of Portſmouth harbour.

One of the evening papers propoſes that we ſhould exchange, by a regular cartel, fifteen or more, French valets, cooks, barbers, friſeurs, perfumers, embroiderers, ſhoemakers, taylors, milliners, dealers in prohibited goods, both male and female, &c. now in this kingdom, for one able Engliſh, Scotch, or Iriſh ſhipwright, ſoldier or ſailor; whereby we would not only recover ſome thouſands of our ableſt men, now, for want of employment at home, engaged in the French ſervice, but alſo prevent many others from periſhing by diſtreſs and hunger.

On ſunday morning laſt, during the time of divine ſervice, a preſs gang ſurrounded St. Martin's Church, in order to preſs a man whom they had information was there; but the man, by the aſſiſtance of an old gentlewoman's long cloak, hood and bonnet, went through them all, and got off.

London, March 5. They write from Madrid, that from the nature of the preparations making there, there is reaſon to believe the Spaniards have ſome ſiege in View.

Letters from Paris adviſe, that to the apprehenſions of a war many aſcribe the complaiſance ſhewn at preſent to the parliament (without whoſe aſſiſtance it would be difficult to raiſe money) and the kind reception that for ſome time paſt a certain marſhal has met with at court.

It is computed that the value of the annual exports from our colonies and plantations in America, including the freight, amounts to 4,800,000l. or thereabout; and that by this exportation no leſs than 37,000 ſeamen are employed and maintained.

Now, as much the greateſt part of this ſum muſt annually center in Great Britain, we may from thence judge, what an addition is made to the riches and power of this country by our colonies and plantations in America, and what numbers of induſtrious manufacturers and mechanics of all ſorts muſt be employed and maintained in this iſland, by providing for our people who inhabit that part of the world.

How careful then, how zealous, ought we to be at all times, eſpecially upon the preſent occaſion, to provide for their ſafety, and to exert our utmoſt ſtrength in removing, or guarding againſt, every thing that either has, or may have, a tendency to their ruin!

Philadelphia, April 24. On Sunday laſt the Hon. James De Lancey, Eſq; Governor of New-York; and on Monday his Excellency William Shirley, Eſq; Governor of Boſton, and his honour our Governor, returned here from the General Congreſs at Alexandria. At their entering the City they were complimented with a Peal of the new Sett of Eight Bells in Chriſt Church Steeple.

They were likewiſe ſaluted with a Round of Twenty-one Braſs Guns.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Feb. 22. 1755.

"The French are equipping thirty Men of War, with the utmoſt Expedition at Breſt, and have 6000 Troops in that Neighbourhood ready to embark; but this Fleet cannot poſſibly put to Sea before the beginning of April, when Part of the Men of War, and all the Troops, are to be ſent to North America, if our Differences are not adjuſted before, and they can eſcape our Fleet. The Propoſals for ſettling the Britiſh and French Diſpute in Aſia, Africa, and America, brought hither by the French Ambaſſador, were flatly rejected. And this Day our new Ambaſſador ſet out for Paris with our laſt Propoſals, which if the French will accept, every national Diſpute will be amicably adjuſted; but if they refuſe them, the Ambaſſador is to return, and War will immediately begin. Even for the latter Event we are quite ready, with reſpect to the Diſpoſition of [illegible] head, to ſerve as Marines, or to land in North America, if there is Occaſion.

New-Haven April 26. We hear moſt of the Companies raiſing in this Colony, on the preſent Occaſion, are quite full, and the Remainder, 'tis thought will be compleated in a few Days.

Boſton, April 27. A few Days ago a Veſſel arrived at Portſmouth in 14 Days from Barbados, the Maſter of which reports, that the French had quitted the Neutral Iſlands, and retired to Martinico, where the Inhabitants were under ſtrong Apprehenſions of a Viſit from the Engliſh; and that all the Frenchmen on the Iſland of Barbados were put under Confinement. He alſo ſays, that no Packet was [illegible] there from England, when he came away.

The Government of Piſcataqua have made an Act for the Emiſſion of One Hundred and Twenty Thouſand Pounds, old Tenor, for carrying on the preſent Expedition to C—a-P—t.——— And laſt Week the Hon. Joſeph Newmarch, and Clement March, Eſqrs; two of their Committee, came to Town, and have agreed with an Engraver to ſtrike off that Sum.

New York, April 28. Laſt Tueſday Evening, the Honourable James De Lancey, Eſq; our Lieutenant Governor, and the Honourable Colonel William Johnſon, Eſq; arrived here in good Health from Alexandria, where they attended the general Congreſs, with General Braddock: And we hear that his Excellency the Honourable William Shirley, Eſq; Governor of Boſton, accompanied by the Honourable Robert Hunter Morris, Eſq; Governor of Pennſylvania, is expected in Town this Day from New-Jerſey, where they have been for ſome Days paſt.

We hear that his Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint ——— POWNELL, Eſq; Secretary to the late Sir D'Anvers Oſborne, deceaſed, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New-Jerſey.

Laſt Monday Night a Sloop and a Schooner arrived here from the Eaſtward, with upwards of a Hundred Recruits for General Pepperell's Regiment; others for the ſame Regiment, came to Town on Wedneſday and Saturday laſt, from New-Jerſey.

Philadelphia, May 1. Laſt Week Capt. White arrived here in a ſhort Paſſage from Havre de Grace, and advices, that it was the general Opinion there that a War with England would ſoon enſue: That they had at Breſt Twenty-five Frigates, and Twelve Thouſand Troops ready to embark, which were certainly deſtined for North-America, and to be convey'd by five Capital Ships, as ſoon as every Thing could be got ready for ſailing, which it was thought would be about the Middle of April. That while he lay in that Port (18 Days) there were above 600 Sailors ſent from thence towards manning the Fleet; and the Day he ſail'd, there was certain Advice that they had commiſſioned two Capital Ships more at Breſt.

Captain White further informs, that there were five Sail of Engliſh Men of War cruizing off of Breſt.

Boſton, May 1. On Monday laſt, his honour the lieutenant governor was pleaſed to diſſolve the great and general court or aſſembly then ſitting here—ſome reaſons of ſtate were ſtrongly urg'd for their further continuance, but the houſe was ſo zealouſly attach'd to Parliamentary Precedents, and to the juſt liberties of the people, that they would hearken to no propoſals which might have the leaſt tendency to break in upon either. It was ſaid that new inſtructions would ſoon be offer'd relating to expeditions, &c. and ſhould that be the caſe, 'tis a great pity they did not come in time to be laid before the late houſe, for it is greatly to be fear'd, we ſhall never have ſuch another.

On Saturday laſt his majeſty's ſhip the Mermaid, Capt. Shirley, fell down to King-Road. And, Yeſterday morning his majeſty's ſhip Syren, Capt. Proby, arrived here from New York; which, with the Succeſs, Capt. Rous, makes three 20 gun ſhips now in this harbour.

New-York, May 5. His Excellency the Honourable Jonathan Belcher, Eſq; Governor of New-[illegible] and [illegible]

[illegible] and experience.

Laſt Tueſday his Excellency William Shirley, Eſq; Governor of Boſton, and Robert Hunter Morris, Eſq; Governor of Pennſylvania, accompanied by ſeveral Gentlemen of Diſtinction, arrived here from the Jerſies: At their landing they were ſaluted by the Cannon from Fort George; and received by the Hon. James De Lancey, Eſq; our Lieutenant-Governor, the Members of his Majeſty's Council, and General Aſſembly of this Province, the Corporation, the Clergy of every Denomination, and all the principal Gentlemen of this Place: The City Regiment of Militia, with five Independent Companies, and one of Grenadiers, were under Arms, and lined the Street, as they paſſed along, from the Whitehall to the Oſwego Market; and many of them being dreſſed in their proper Uniform, made a handſome Appearance; the whole was conducted with the greateſt Decency and Decorum. And on Saturday Governor Shirley ſet out for Boſton.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Kingſton, Jamaica, to his Friend in this City, dated March 26, 1755.

"In my laſt I acquainted you, that the [illegible] Town Intereſt was loſing Ground. I can now with Pleaſure inform you, that we have the Majority by three Votes already known, and expect two or three more from the Leward Quarter. The Taverns of Keaton and Klakead, were illuminated on this Occaſion, when three Barrels of Porter was drank at the Court-Houſe, by the Populace. The 29th of May next, is fixed for holding a grand Jubilee, being that Day 100 Years, ſince the Engliſh took Poſſeſſion of this Iſland; it is to hold three Days, and the Place aſſigned for the Ceremony, is Mr. Mar[illegible] Pen.——— Great Preparations are making there a[illegible] works; and his Excellency has declared, [illegible] will that Day, lay the firſt Stone to the publ[illegible] ings in this Town."

Yeſterday a Schooner, which has been for ſome Time a miſſing, and thought to have been loſt, arrived here from the Eaſtward, with about one [illegible] dred Recruits for General Pepperell's Regiment. ——

New-Haven, May 3. It is worthy remark, to obſerve with what alacrity and ſpirit, the ſeveral Colonies in and for the Colony of Connecticut, have in that ſervice, on a good Suppoſition that they ſhall have the enemies of the Britiſh conſtitution to encounter.

ter with, under their own officers, and not be led a sacrifice to either private pique or public ambition: Such was the spirit of the ancient Romans, and such will be the spirit of every true lover of virtue, liberty, and his country. This colony is poor, and has little else to boast of; and indeed there is little else worthy of public boast: The destruction at Carthagena, seems to stick in the minds of most in this colony, and frightens them from inlisting in public service, when they know not what they have to expect: But 'tis neither danger nor difficulty they dread when they are sensible their king calls for them indeed, only for his honour, and the nation's good. On such principles as these, we are assured the colony troops on the present occasion, are now full, and ready to march on a moment's warning. This must be esteemed a good omen of success, and convince our enemies, that English virtue is not yet entirely rooted out by the vices and effeminacy of France. 'Tis plain 'tis not the lucre of their pay or reward that tempts them, those being rather less than any other government: But only what is dear to Englishmen.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Feb. 22, 1755.

"The general destination of the fleet is variously talk'd of: This much, however, is certain, that there is a squadron to cruize in the Channel, under the command of Lord Anson and Sir Edward Hawke, and another for America, to be commanded by Admiral Boscawen. This last appointment will rejoice you all, as he is a man of universal good character, both as an officer and a gentleman. Two regiments more are to embark, and money, stores, and ammunition, will not be wanting. The ministry are in earnest to save America."

New York, May 12. Last Monday morning major general Johnson set out from hence for Albany, by land.

Of ARTS and SCIENCES, PHILOSOPHICAL, PHILOLOGICAL, MATHEMATICAL and MECHANICAL: Comprehending alſo, miſcellaneous ESSAYS, in Proſe and Verſe; and a chronological MEMOIR of all Occurrences. Printed for W. OWEN, at Homer's Head, in Fleet-ſtreet.

To the PUBLIC.

As this Magazine is, with Reſpect to the Subject and Plan of it, entirely new; it will be neceſſary to give a particular Account of our Deſign herein, and the Subject of each Half-ſheet, as follows:

I. The Firſt Half-ſheet of each Number, will conſiſt of a general SURVEY of the WORKS of NATURE and ART (by way of familiar Dialogue) the various Phœnomena of which will be explain'd by aſſigning the true Reaſon thereof, and illuſtrating the ſame by Experiments; wherein alſo the Inſtruments will be particularly deſcribed, and the Whole embelliſhed and enliven'd with poetical Deſcriptions and Alluſions; comprising all thoſe Parts of natural Philoſophy as can be ſuppoſed to be underſtood without Mathematical Literature; and to which, we think, we may very properly give the Title of, The YOUNG GENTLEMEN and LADIES PHILOSOPHY.

II. The Second Half-ſheet will conſiſt of a compleat Body of NATURAL HISTORY, or a particular Account of all the extraordinary Productions of Nature, in regard to Animals, Vegetables, and Foſſils, in every Part of the terraqueous Globe; wherein we ſhall take Care to be ſo very circumſtantial, as to omit nothing that may conduce to a clear Underſtanding of the general Proceſs and Oeconomy of Nature, in forming and perfecting thoſe innumerable Claſſes, Orders, Kinds, and Species of Bodies, we every where behold. In theſe Relations we ſhall obtrude nothing on the Public which we are not fully ſatisfied is true, and really exiſting in Nature.

III. The Third Half-ſheet will contain as compleat a Syſtem of all the PHILOLOGICAL SCIENCES, as our preſent State of Learning in this Reſpect will furniſh; we are here to be underſtood of thoſe Sciences which are not Mathematical, viz. Theology, Ethics or Morality, Mythology, Ontology or Metaphyſics, Grammar, Logic, Rhetoric, Poetry, Geography, Chronology, Hiſtory, Phyſiology, Botany, Pharmacy, Chymiſtry, Anatomy, Medicine, Mineralogy, Metallurgy; and various other Branches of natural and commercial Arts, Trades, and Manufactures, in all which we ſhall take particular Care to add to our own Knowledge what Intelligence we can get from the beſt Authors in each Science, and moſt ſkillful Operators in each reſpective Faculty.

IV. The Fourth Half-ſheet will contain a Series of Mathematical and Mechanical Inſtitutions, beginning with thoſe that are moſt Simple and Eaſy, and proceeding to the more compounded and ſublime: From the firſt Principles of Arithmetical Computations, in their ſeveral Kinds and Species, to the various Theorems and Problems of Geometry, and Properties of the Conic Sections; from the Doctrine of Mechanics to the ſublime Poſitions of the New Phyſics Mathefis. And from ſuch a copious Syſtem of Inſtitutes we ſhall deduce a regular Body of MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES, and ſhew the Manner of their Application in all the Affairs of Life.

V. The Fifth Half-ſheet will be devoted to a public Correſpondence, which we hope to be favoured with from Gentlemen and Ladies of Genius and Leiſure.

VI. The laſt Half-ſheet will contain a Chronological Memoir of the paſt Month; giving a particular Account of all the memorable Incidents and Events by Way of News: Alſo Births, Marriages, Deaths, Promotions, &c. Catalogues of Books publiſh'd Abroad and at Home; Prices of Stocks, and Goods at the Keys, and Markets, and every other Article of public Information.

No Expence of Cuts or Copper Plates will be ſpared for illuſtrating the ſeveral Parts of the Work. The Pages of each Half-ſheet will be number'd in ſuch Manner, that they may at laſt be bound up together in compleat Volumes on each of the Subjects reſpectively. And as this Work is deſign'd to tranſmit to Poſterity a View of the Learning of the preſent Age, in all its numerous Branches, it is not doubted but the Public will ſhew a generous Diſpoſition to encourage ſuch an Undertaking, at leaſt, in proportion to the Merits of the Performance; which is all that is expected by the Editors, and particularly,

Their moſt obedient humble Servant,

BENJ. MARTIN.
